

Robert Gorsuch rites Thursday

Robert W. Gorsuch, 71, of 2509 D. Ave., N.E., Cedar Rapids, died Tuesday, Jan. 21, at his home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1 p.m. Thursday at the Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church in Cedar Rapids, with the Rev. David Roth officiating. Burial was at 3 p.m. in the Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

He was born on Oct. 9, 1914, in Montezuma. He graduated from Grinnell High School, attended Grinnell College and graduated from Chicago Tech in Chicago.

On April 18, 1937, he was married to Ruth Stanley, in Grinnell. They moved from Des Moines to Cedar Rapids in 1945.

Mr. Gorsuch was a design engineer for Rockwell-Collins International for 35 years. He was a member of the Mariners Club and the Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder trustee.

He is survived by his wife; three daughters, Carol Fouts of Schaumburg, Ill., Kathleen Anderson of Des Moines and Joyce Gorsuch-Burns of Topeka, Kans., and three grandchildren.

Memorials have been established with the church and the American Cancer Society.

H-K January 23, 1986

Robert Gorsuch buried here

Robert W. Gorsuch, 71, of 2509 D Ave. NE, Cedar Rapids, died Tuesday, Jan. 21, in his home following a short illness.

He was born Oct. 9, 1914, in Montezuma. He graduated from Grinnell High School, attended Grinnell College and graduated from Chicago Tech, Chicago, Ill. He married Ruth Stanley April 18, 1937, in Grinnell. He moved to Cedar Rapids from Des Moines in 1945. He was a design engineer for Rockwell-Collins International for 35 years. Mr. Gorsuch was a member of the Mariners' Club and a member of the Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church where he served as an elder and trustee.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by three daughters, Carol Fouts of Schaumburg, Ill., Kathleen Anderson of Des Moines and Joyce Gorsuch-Burns of Topeka, Kan., and three grandchildren.

Services were Thursday afternoon, Jan. 23, at Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church with the Rev. David Roth officiating. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma, at 3 p.m. Friends may contribute to the Kenwood Park Presbyterian Church 327 35th St. NE or to the American Cancer Society 603 10th St. SE, Cedar Rapids.

Montezuma Rep. January 30, 1986