

OBITUARY.

11 - 15 - 1912

Harriett Gove.

Harriett Kendall, daughter of Josiah and Lucy Kendall, was born in Stratford, Orange County, Vermont, August 12, 1833, and died at her home in Sully, Iowa, November 7, 1912, aged 79 years, 2 months and 25 days. She was united in marriage to Sabin P. Gove in the year 1851 and moved to Illinois in 1856. To this union were given four sons, Tracy L. Gove and Harry M. Gove of Grinnell, Wm. S. Gove of Newton and Albert K. Gove, of Sully. In the fall of 1865 they emigrated to Jasper County, Iowa, and settled on a farm in Richland township. In the autumn of 1895 while in California, Mr. Gove passed away on September 15th. Mrs. Gove has made her home at Sully since the death of her husband. In addition to her four sons she leaves twelve grand-children and thirteen great-grandchildren, besides a wide circle of acquaintances to mourn her loss. Interment was made in the Lynnville cemetery.

Her sons, Harry and Tracy, went from here to attend the funeral.
