

Sarah Gove Rites Pending

Sarah Mildred Gove, 86, died Tuesday, Oct. 22, at Coronado, Calif.

The daughter of Tracy L. and Nettie J. Gove, she was born Oct. 1, 1888, on a farm near Sully. She graduated from Grinnell High School and Grinnell College.

Miss Gove taught school at Grinnell and Coon Rapids, Ia.; Rigby, Idaho; and Pulaski

Senior High School, Milwaukee, Wis., for 30 years. She had lived in Milwaukee, Creve Coeur, Ill.; Seattle, Wash.; and Coronado.

Survivors include a sister, Lula Rothgeb of Coronado, and a brother, Raymond Gove of Grinnell.

Funeral services are pending at the Smith Funeral Home, where friends may call for additional information.

Sarah Gove services held

Sarah M. "Sadie" Gove, 86, of Coronado, Calif., died Tuesday afternoon in Coronado.

The daughter of Tracy L. and Nettie J. Sherman Gove, she was born Oct. 1, 1888, at Sully. The family later moved to the Grinnell area, and she was graduated from Grinnell High School and Grinnell College.

Miss Gove taught history at Grinnell High School; Coon Rapids and Ames, Iowa; Rigby, Idaho; and for 30 years at Pulaski High School, Milwaukee, Wis. In later years she lived in Creve Coeur, Ill., and Seattle, Wash., before making her home in Coronado.

She is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lula Rothgeb of Coronado, and a brother, Raymond T. Gove of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by three brothers, Sabin, Willie and Homer Gove, and a sister, Mrs. Carrie James.

Funeral services for Miss Gove were held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the Grinnell United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Organist was Norman Goodbrod, and pallbearers were Jack Gove, Robert Greeley, Eugene Gunzenhauser, Gerald Kelly, Phares O'Daffer, and Harold J. Scott.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.