Mrs. Archie Grabin Was Worker In Methodist Church

Florence

Sorrowing relatives and friends filled the Guernsey Methodist church Friday afternoon to pay final respects to Mrs. Archie Grabin. Rev. N. Grote conducted the services. Mrs. Hilda Prashak and Miss Myrtle Ochs, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Pidima, sang "Face to Face" and "Near to Thy God."

Mrs. Leona Johnson, Mrs. Burton Stanford and Mrs. William Schlesselman, cared for the flowers. Burial was in the Guernsey cemetery beside her husband, under direction of the McAninch Funeral Home. Casket bearers were Arthur Timm, Charles Mullen, Lawrence Pidima, Wm. Schlesselman, Bud Baustian and Frank Pexa.

Florence Ethel Dillsaver, youngest daughter of Milo and Ellen Dillsaver, was born on a farm near Guernsey, Feb. 7, 1889 and died at her Guernsey home Mar. 5 at the age of 72 years and 28 days. She lived her entire life in Guernsey and vicinity.

She was united in marriage with Archie Grabin Feb. 23, 1910. They established their home on a farm and resided there until his death. She then built a small home in Guernsey and continued there until her death. In 1942 she and Archie joined the Methodist church in Guernsey. She was a devoted member and participated in the Woman's Society of Christian service. She attended church the morning of her death.

As long as her health permitted she raised many flowers and vegetables, sharing them with her neighbors and friends. She had been failing recently but her death was entirely unexpected.

Surviving are several nieces, nephews, other relatives and a host of friends.
