

Funeral Of Wm. J. Grant Is Held Today

8-7-1934

Funeral services for William James Grant, age 72, who died Monday at the Skiff Memorial hospital in Newton, were held this afternoon at the United Presbyterian church with Rev. W. J. Stewart in charge. Burial was in Hazelwood. Mr. Grant was well-known in Grinnell and community, and had been ill for about a month.

He was born in the Ewart neighborhood and moved to Grinnell when 18 years old. He was in the trucking business for a while and took care of the heating plant in the Manly building also. He leaves many friends here.

He is survived by four daughters and five grandchildren. They are Mrs. Homer Dawkins and son, Richard, of Grinnell; Mrs. J. W. Mills and son, Grant of Mendota, Ill.; Mrs. Amos Myers and sons, Robert and William of Newton, and Mrs. Francis Paul and son, Jimmy, of Brooklyn. A sister, Mrs. Jennie Clark, and a brother, Thomas Grant, both of this city, also survive him.

He had been making his home in Newton with his daughter, Mrs. Myers.
