

H-R June 11, 1987
Mrs. Graves rites Thursday

Arnola Mae Graves, 67, died Monday, June 8, at Grinnell General Hospital of a heart ailment.

Services were held Thursday, June 11, at Smith Funeral Home with Rev. Craig Whitlatch, pastor of the Church of the Nazarene, and the Rev. LeRoy Lindsey, professor emeritus of Vennard College, University Park, officiating. Organist was Mary Louise Long and vocal music was by her son and family Dale and Sylvia Graves. Maria and Eric. Pall bearers were Philip Affelt, William Campbell, James Galt, Dean Graves, Marcus Graves and Clair Long. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

She was born May 3, 1920, at Kansas City, Mo., the daughter of Frank and Lena Buffett. She attended the Marshalltown Public Schools and was married to Francis D. Graves at San Francisco, Calif., Oct. 18, 1942. She was a member of the National Shut-Ins Society and Nazarene World Mission Society.

She is survived by her husband; one daughter N. Francene Graves; two sons Dale Garten Graves, Mooresville, Ind., and Harvey Folsom, Kansas City; four grandchildren; four brothers Emmett Buffett, Frostproof, Fla., James Buffett, Cincinnati, Ohio, Glenn Buffett, Marshalltown, and Arthur Buffett, Frostproof, Fla. She was preceded in death by one son Loran Dwayne Graves; one brother Carl Buffett and one sister Marjorie Turner.