

Mae M. Gray

Mae M. Gray, 86, of the Mayflower died Monday, Feb. 15, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday at the First Friends Church in Grinnell, with the Rev. Keith Briggs officiating. Organist was JoLynn Renaud, and pallbearers were Dennis Arthur, Ron Baker, Richard Brignon, Tim Gray, Rusty Hughes, James Kessler, Ervin Meredith and Steve Therrian.

Burial was in the Friends Cemetery, Lynnville.

The daughter of David and Hattie Hunt Meredith, she was born Sept. 24, 1906, in Lynnville. She attended the Lynnville schools and Whittier College, Whittier, Calif., before graduating from William Penn College in Oskaloosa. She also graduated from a medical laboratory technician college in Minneapolis, Minn.

Following her education she worked as a medical technician for Jefferson County Hospital in Stubenville, Ohio.

She was married to William W. Gray March 15, 1930, in Elizabeth, Pa. The couple lived in the Stubenville and Wintersville, Ohio, areas before moving to the Searsboro area in 1949 to farm. Mrs. Gray had been a resident of the Mayflower since 1988. She was a member of the Grinnell First Friends Church and the Lynnville Women's Club.

Surviving are two sons, Stanley and Robin, both of Searsboro; one daughter, Susan Reiley of Great Falls, Mont.; five grandchildren and one great-granddaughter.

Memorials in Mrs. Gray's name may be made to the Grinnell First Friends Church.

(William)

H-R February 18, 1993