

Former Resident Is Highway Victim ^{8/16/12}

Howard Green, 52, former Grinnell resident, was killed in a two-semitruck accident Wednesday, Aug. 16, at about 5:30 a.m. near a sharp curve on U.S. Highway 6 100 miles west of Denver, near Glenwood Springs, Colo.

Green was on his way to his home in Denver from a trip with his semi to the West Coast when another semi came around the curve ahead of him, side-swipping his truck and causing him to lose control and plunge into the Colorado River.

Many Grinnellians will remember Green, as he delivered milk for Lang's dairy for some time.

He is survived by his wife, the former Gladys Ford, three daughters and six grandchildren.

Funeral services were in Denver last Saturday at 1:30 p.m.

Green was born and reared in Gilman.
