

Orville F. Green

Orville F. Green, 76, of What Cheer died Saturday, Jan. 4, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Harden Funeral Chapel in What Cheer, with the Rev. John DeBoef officiating. Burial was in Humes Cemetery east of What Cheer.

The son of Orlan and Tressie Bradley Green, he was born Dec. 26, 1915, in Springfield. He attended rural schools in the What Cheer area. He was married to Mary "Goldie" Gulosh Dec. 21, 1941, in Lancaster, Mo.

Mr. Green farmed east of What Cheer and was a custodian at an overall factory in Oskaloosa and later at the University of Iowa. He was a member of the Moose lodge.

Surviving are three daughters, Shirley Tremmel of Searsboro, Norma Harvey of Fairfield and Catherine Provin of Oronogo, Mo.; nine grandchildren; seven great-grandchildren; one brother, Eugene of What Cheer; and two sisters, Lillian Axtell of Spring, Texas, and Jane Larson of Clive. He was preceded in death by his parents, a great-grandchild and one brother in infancy.

Memorials in Mr. Green's name may be made to the What Cheer Rescue Unit.

H-R January 13 1992