

William G. Greenwald

William G. "Bill" Greenwald, 93, of Grinnell died Wednesday, Oct. 11, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Mr. Greenwald was a longtime area farmer.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday at the First Baptist Church, with burial in Hazelwood Cemetery. Friends may call from noon to 9 p.m. Sunday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Memorials may be made to the Human Needs Fund of the Mayflower Home or to the First Baptist Church.

H-R October 12, 1989

William G. Greenwald

William G. "Bill" Greenwald, 93, of Grinnell died Wednesday, Oct. 11, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the First Baptist Church, with the Rev. Stanley Meade officiating. Organist was Edward Bohstedt, and vocalist was Milton Severe.

Pallbearers were Thomas Greenwald, Timothy McKone, Maynard Raffety, Howard Raffety, Dwight George and Harley McIlrath. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Memorials may be made to the Human needs Fund of the Mayflower Home or to the First Baptist Church.

H-R October 16, 1989

The son of Samuel and Lena Gitzendonner Greenwald, he was born Sept. 22, 1896, at New Hampton. He graduated from New Hampton High School in 1914 and received his B.A. degree from Grinnell College in 1918. He served with the U.S. Army during World War I.

He was married to Lois Raffety June 27, 1923, in Grinnell. The couple lived in New Hampton, where he operated a bank. They moved to a farm in Chester Township and farmed for many years, moving to the Mayflower Home in 1975.

Mr. Greenwald was a member of the First Baptist Church, where he taught Sunday school and served in other capacities. He was a former member of the Grinnell General Hospital Board of Trustees. He was also a member of Chester Royal Grange, the Kiwanis Club, Hermon Masonic Lodge, the Fortnightly Club, and the Newburg American Legion. He had served as secretary of the Chester Township School Board for many years.

Surviving are his daughter, Ruth Greenwald of Iowa City; a son, Dr. Stanley W. Greenwald of Iowa City; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Lois; a son, Raffety; and a brother, Dakota.