

Cleta Grosenbach

Cleta M. Grosenbach, 71, of Gettysburg, Pa., formerly of Grinnell, died Wednesday, Jan. 5, at The Gettysburg Hospital.

A memorial service was conducted Saturday in Gettysburg.

She was the daughter of Grant and Beatrice Short Arnold and was born in Sanborn, Iowa.

Mrs. Grosenbach is survived by her husband, Milton; three children, M. James Jr. of Lapeer, Mich., Patricia A. Symmes and Diane H. Baker, both of Gettysburg; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and a brother, Max Arnold of Hot Springs Village, Ark.

Memorials may be made to The Gettysburg Hospital.

H-R

January 10, 1994

Cleta Grosenbach

A graveside service for Cleta M. Grosenbach, 71, of Gettysburg, Pa., formerly of Grinnell, will be conducted Friday, July 29, at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Mrs. Grosenbach died Jan. 5 in a Gettysburg hospital. The body was cremated, and the ashes will be buried here.

The Rev. Lon Lewis, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, will officiate. Friends are being asked to meet at the funeral home at 8:45 a.m. July 29.

She was the daughter of Grant and Beatrice Short Arnold and was born in Sanborn, Iowa. She was employed by Sears in Columbia, Ohio, for 25 years and then worked for the Gettysburg Hospital.

Surviving are her husband, Milton; three children, M. James Jr. of Lapeer, Mich., and Patricia Symmes and Diane Baker, both of Gettysburg; six grandchildren; one great-grandchild; and a brother, Max Arnold of Hot Springs Village, Ark.

H-R

July 21, 1994