

Florence A. Grove

Florence A. Grove, 91, of the Mayflower died Thursday, March 10, at the Mayflower Health Care Center.

A memorial service was held at the Mayflower. Her body was donated to the Osteopathic College of Medicine and Health Services in Des Moines. The Smith Funeral Home handled arrangements.

She was the daughter of Edward R. and Hannah Twedt Grove and was born Aug. 20, 1902, in Roland. She was a graduate of Roland High School. She received a B.A. degree from St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and a B.L.S. degree from the University of Illinois.

Following her education she was a librarian at public libraries in Waverly and Marshalltown, as well as West Lafayette, Ind. She also worked for the Iowa State Extension Services' traveling libraries and was a school librarian at Boone High School.

She retired in 1965 and resided in Ames until 1975 when she moved to the Mayflower here.

Miss Grove was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Willard.
