

Mrs EMALINE HAAG DIED SUDDENLY SATURDAY

Was in Her Home at Deep
River When Death
Came.

Funeral Services Said Monday
Afternoon from Home Rev.
F. B. Hebron in Charge.

Emaline Haag, 73, of Deep River, passed away at her home Saturday, December 4, following a heart attack. She had not been in the best of health for some time.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, December 6, at the Haag home with the Rev. F. B. Hebron of the Deep River Methodist Church in charge, assisted by the Rev. Ernest Molloy of the Deep River Christian Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Icenbice played and sang "In the Garden" and "The Old Rugged Cross."

Casketbearers were all nephews of Miss Haag. They were Wayne Keller, Jack Keller, Newell Keller, Marvin Cranston, Cecil Elliott and Melvin Elliott. Interment was in the Golden Rod Cemetery.

Obituary.

Emaline, eldest daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Haag, was born on a farm about eight miles northeast of Deep River, June 5th, 1875, and departed this life at her home December 4th, 1948.

She was one of a family of nine children of whom six are still living, five sisters and one brother.

For many years she was a popular milliner at Guernsey and Deep River.

In later years she lived with her brother on the farm until his death which occurred nearly three years ago and since that time has lived in her home at Deep River.

In early life she was converted and became a member of the Methodist Protestant Church, afterwards transferring her membership to the Methodist Church of Deep River.

She was an honored member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Legion Auxilliary.

Three sisters, Mrs. Lenore Keller, Mrs. Carrie Cranston and Mrs. Lydia Elliott and a number of nephews and nieces live in or near Deep River. Her brother, Orrie F. Haag and wife and two sisters, Kathryn and Pearl Haag, live in Grinnell.

Miss Haag lived a long and useful life and was never happier than when she was doing something for others and will be remembered by many for some kindly service rendered.

The whole community mourns the loss of a most beloved friend.