

(Ives J.)

7-4- OBITUARY.
MRS. EMMA HALL. 1905

Mrs. Emma Hall was born in Ohio on July 22, 1847 and died at the home of her son, Delos Hall, in this city, of heart trouble on last Thursday morning. In early girlhood the deceased moved to Illinois and when a young lady to this state. Her first husband was killed in the Civil War and in 1866 she was married to Ives J. Hall, also a veteran of the Civil War. During the past four years she has made her home in this city with her son, Delos Hall, who is employed in the Herald office, and who with another son, W. L. Hall of San Francisco, lives to mourn her loss. Two daughters and her husband preceded her in death.

Funeral services were held at the late residence last Friday afternoon and were conducted by the Rev. E. M. Vittum. On Saturday morning the remains were taken to Parkersburg to be laid beside the bodies of her husband and a daughter.

Owing to ill health largely her circle of friends was limited here but the son and his family with whom she lived testify to her loving kindness in woman's highest sphere—the home.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our appreciation and extend our sincerest thanks to our friends and neighbors for their many acts of kindness and for floral tributes in the time of our sad bereavement in the loss of our beloved