She was born January 30, 1898 near Montezuma, the daughter of John and Clara Lineweaver Wiley. Also, she is survived by one great grandson, Richard Eldon Price, and one brother, Homer Wiley of Oskaloosa, and several nieces, nephews, aunts, and uncles.

Mrs. Hall was preceded in death by her parents, by her grandson, Eldon Pearce, in February of 1957; and her husband, Eldon, in May of 1936. Mrs. Hall continued farming for several years on the family farm north of Grinnell, following her husband's death, and later moved to Grinnell to make her home. She was employed at Grinnell College for several years.

She was a member of the Grinnell Methodist church and the W.S.C.S. of the church.
