

H-R September 27, 1982
Mrs. Hall services today

LLOYD

Lorna E. Hall, 61, of 1724 Third Ave., Grinnell, died Saturday morning, Sept. 25, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Sam Reaves of the Grinnell Assembly of God Church officiating. Organist will be Kathleen Heffner. Burial will be at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The daughter of Morgan and Viola Wentzel Hicks Sr., she was born May 26, 1921, at Malcom. She attended Malcom schools, graduating from Malcom High School.

On Aug. 30, 1938, she was married to Lloyd Hall at her parents' home in Malcom. Mr. and Mrs. Hall farmed near Brooklyn and later farmed for 21 years near Guernsey. They moved to Grinnell in 1962, and she was employed in the housekeeping department at Grinnell College from 1965 until January of this year.

Mrs. Hall is survived by her husband; her children, Larry L. Hall of Marengo and Linda L. Hansen of Marion; five grandchildren, one brother, Morgan Hicks Jr. of Walker; and four sisters, Dorothy Clifton and Shirley Carter, both of Grinnell, Nedra Neville of Toledo and Ruth Varnum of Brandon, Fla.

Lorna Hall services held

H-R September 30, 1982

Funeral services for Lorna E. Hall, 61, of 1724 Third Ave., Grinnell, who died Saturday, Sept. 25, were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Smith Funeral Home.

The Rev. Sam Reaves, pastor of the Grinnell Assembly of God Church, officiated. Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and pallbearers were Don Cobb, Harold Horn, Darrell Keenan, Bill McGinn, Doyle Mikles and Wayne Sanders.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.