

Hall Funeral Here Sunday Afternoon

(ELZA R.)

Funeral services were Sunday afternoon at First United Presbyterian church here for Mrs. Margaret Ann Hall, 83, who died Sept. 13 at Brookhaven Nursing home where she had been a resident since January of this year. Earlier she had lived four years at Goeke Nursing home at Montezuma.

The Rev. George W. Roquet, pastor, was in charge of the 2 p.m. service. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Burial was in the Brooklyn I.O.O.F. cemetery. Serving as pallbearers were Ross Ramsey, Howard Ramsey, Everett Johnston, Raymond Sheets, Fred Lacaeyse, and Emil Arvidson. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hall, Mrs. Mary Ann Dhooge and Mrs. Fred Lacaeyse.

Mary Ann Johnston, daughter of William R. and Sara Jane McDonald Johnston, was born May 18, 1885, in Poweshiek county, where she had spent all her life.

Sept. 30, 1908, she was married to Elza R. Hall, and the couple farmed southwest of Brooklyn until her husband's death in 1944.

Survivors include one son, Clarke J. Hall, of Brooklyn; three grandchildren; six great grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. Clara Horsford and Mrs. Laura Lamond, both of Montezuma.

She was preceded in death by her parents, four brothers and three sisters and one great-grandchild.
