

Ross Hall Funeral Held Here Tuesday

Chronicle August 19, 1913
Services were at Bramer Funeral Home here Tuesday afternoon for Ross Hall, 75, longtime Brooklyn resident, who died at a Grinnell hospital Aug. 4, after suffering a stroke at his home two days earlier.

The Rev. Ken Siemens, pastor of the Madison Church of Christ, conducted the service. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was organist.

Interment was in Oak Hill cemetery at Williamsburg. Serving as casket bearers were Leslie Carlsen, Lloyd Olson, Ed Huedepohl, Richard Hall, Clarke Hall and Harold Newton. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Schulte, Mrs. Charles Drake and Mrs. Ed Huedepohl.

The son of Eldon and Mary Hall, Roscoe Hall was born April 22, 1893, on a farm near Brooklyn. He received his schooling in this community and then was graduated from the Palmer School of Chiropractic at Davenport.

Mr. Hall married Ada Claire Allison Aug. 15, 1913. The couple had three children.

He practiced his profession in Osage, Ia., for a number of years. Later he was engaged in farming and then operated a painting and decorating business. Because of ill health, he retired several years ago.

His survivors include a son, Robert Allison Hall, of Colorado Springs, Colo.; a daughter, Joyce Clair Osborn, and a grandson, Michael Gene Osborn, both of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, a daughter, Dorothy, and four brothers, Elza, Leroy, Lewis and Eldon.
