

Lilly Halterman (MARTIN)

Lilly A. Halterman, 69, of Newton died of heart failure Wednesday, Oct. 2, at Marshalltown Medical and Surgical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at Wallace Pence Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. Robert Hinshaw, pastor of Ashton Chapel in rural Mingo, officiating. Burial was in Sugar Grove Cemetery west of Newton.

She was the daughter of Alva LeRoy and Alma Tennessee Large Garr and was born Feb. 5, 1927, at Exline. She was married to Martin Halterman Jan. 21, 1946, in Newton.

Mrs. Halterman was employed by the Maytag Co. from 1967 until her retirement in 1989. She was a member of the Newton Moose Lodge and United Auto Workers Retirees Union No. 997.

Surviving are two sons, Wilbur of Austin, Texas, and Leonard of Prairie City; four daughters, Barbara Lemke of Grinnell, and Donna Morton, Marilyn Halterman and Wilma LaFond, all of Newton; 12 grandchildren; 10 great-grandchildren; one brother, Marin Garr of Promise City; and one sister, Alta Mitchell of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by three brothers, Glenn, William and Junior Garr; one sister, Virginia Wilcox; her parents; one grandchild; one great-grandchild; and her former husband, Martin.

Memorial contributions in her name may be sent in care of Wallace-Pence Funeral Home.

H-R
OCT.
7, 1996