

Mrs. M. C. Hammer Of Kellogg Dies

1932

(By a Staff Correspondent)

Kellogg, Ia., Aug. 23, Special:

Mrs. M. C. Hammer, a resident of this city for the past forty-six years, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. T. Hammer, Monday noon. She had been in failing health for some time but grew worse Saturday and was forced to remain in bed.

Funeral services will be held at the Christian church here Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and burial will be made in the family lot in Our Silent City. Surviving relatives include four daughters, Mrs. F. T. Hammer, Mrs. P. E. Coon and Mrs. C. W. Woodward of this place; and Mrs. Laura Birchard of Newton; one son, W. T. Parsons of Malcom; one grandson, C. W. Birchard of St. Paul, Minn., and one granddaughter, Mrs. E. C. Starrett of Newton. Also two sisters, Mrs. Nettie Moore of Oklahoma and Mrs. Lydia Pryor of California.

Mrs. Hammer was a charter member of Kellogg chapter, No. 150, O. E. S., an honorary member of the O. E. S. club, a member of the Ladies Aid society of the Christian and Methodist Episcopal churches and a member of the local Christian church.