
Former Resident Dies November 8

Grinnell friends have recently learned of the death of Arthur C. (Stub) Hammond November 8 in a hospital in his home town of Oakland, California. He had been hospitalized about three weeks. A stroke followed hardening of the arteries.

The news was relayed to Grinnell friends last week by Hammond's daughter, Mrs. Wm. Paul of Yorba Linda, California.

The deceased will be remembered by older Grinnellians as a star Grinnell high school and Grinnell College athlete. He graduated from Grinnell College in the class of 1911.

After he finished Grinnell he located in Portland, Oregon, later widow will be remembered as Hazel Wagner.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, November 10, at a fun
