

Lois L. Hammond

(Eugene)

Lois Lorraine Hammond, 76, of Grinnell, died Tuesday, Dec. 14, of cancer.

A shared memorial service with that of her husband Gene Hammond, who preceded her in death on Oct. 20, 1999, will be held Jan. 8, 2000, at 11 a.m. in Carman Center at Mayflower. Private interment of remains of both will be at Rosehill Memorial Gardens Cemetery in Marshalltown. Memorials may be made to Grinnell Regional Hospice, 210 Fourth Ave., Grinnell.

Lois Lorraine Marquis, daughter of Victoria and Albert Marquis, was born March 11, 1923, in Marshalltown. She worked as a teller at Grinnell Savings and Loan, retiring after 23 years. A lifetime member of Marshalltown Hospital Auxiliary and Grinnell Regional Medical Center Auxiliary, she also was a member of First Presbyterian Church in Marshalltown.

She was married Nov. 8, 1943, in Princeton, Mo., to Eugene C. Hammond.

Survivors are one son, Jim of Claremont, Calif.; one daughter Pat Jones, Davenport; three brothers, one sister and four grandchildren.