

Bd December 30, 1998

Harry F. Hansen

Funeral services were held at noon on Monday, Dec. 28, at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home in Brooklyn for Harry F. Hansen, 79, of Holiday Lake, Brooklyn, who died Thursday, Dec. 24, 1998, at his home at Holiday Lake.

The Rev. Ronald Van Heukelom, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Brooklyn, officiated. Yvette Hansen, soloist, rendered the selection "Tears in Heaven." Special recordings were "Wind Beneath My Wings," "Holes in the Floor of Heaven," and "The Car."

Casket bearers were Gordon Peters, Les Keeling, Gene Keeling, Tim Hansen, Gerald Keeling and Howard Keeling. Interment was in Cedar Valley Memorial Gardens, Cedar Falls.

Harry Fred Hansen, son of Charles Hansen and Trina Andersen Hansen, was born July 5, 1919, at Kimbellton. He received his education at Kimbellton and was a veteran of the U.S. army, serving from Jan. 22, 1945, to Feb. 13, 1946.

Mr. Hansen was a retired employee of John Deere, retiring in March of 1983.

On Nov. 5, 1960, he was married to Charlotte Keeling at the Little Brown Church at Nashua. They lived at Cedar Falls and Traer before moving to Holiday Lake, Brooklyn, in July, 1998.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and three sons and two daughters, Robert, Jeffrey, Kathy, Christina and Jerry.

Surviving are his wife, Charlotte; three sons and their wives, Roger and Marilyn Hansen of Carlisle, Keith and Melody Hansen of Laurinburg, N.C., and Randy and Tracey Hansen of Traer; three daughters, Janet Grauvogel and her husband, Dean, of Eagle River, Alaska, Carmen Hansen of Carlisle, and Janine Peters and her husband, Gordon, of Traer; one brother, Raymond Hansen, of Atlantic; and 16 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.