

Harold Hanson⁴ Services Held²³ 72

Harold B. Hanson, 82, of 622 Main Street, died Sunday evening at Grinnell General Hospital. He was the son of Lars and Hannah Jenson Hanson and was born near Kellogg February 20, 1890. On March 2, 1914 he was married to Cecile Margaret Deeds at Kellogg and the couple had nine children: Mrs. Lamont (Naomi) Gregson of Cedar Rapids; Mrs. Lex (Arlyne) Arnold of Cedar Rapids; Mrs. Iona Wollam of Grinnell; Mrs. Clair (Marjorie) Hull of Arlington, Va.; Mrs. James (Carol) Burnett of Costa Mesa, Calif.; Harold E. Hanson of Yuma, Ariz.; Orville L. Hanson of Van Nuys, Calif.; Mrs. Robert (Roberta) Pierce who died October 28, 1963; and

~~Mrs. Larry (Lorraine) Hanson of Reykjavik, Iceland.~~

Following their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hanson farmed near Kellogg. In 1933 they moved to Grinnell and Mr. Hanson was associated with the York Lumber Yard and DeKalb Seed Company. He later worked as a carpenter building homes. He was a member of St. John's Lutheran Church and was a member of the Lutheran Brotherhood.

Mr. Hanson is survived by his eight children: Naomi; Arlyne; Iona; Marjorie; Carol; Harold; Orville; and Beverly; 14 grand children; and three sisters and one brother: Mrs. Warren (Stella) Bailey of Grinnell; Mrs. Ted (Birdie) Anderson of Grinnell; Mrs. Edythe Brooke of North English; and Arthur Hanson of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his wife, Cecile, on September 28, 1961; his daughter Roberta; and one sister, Mrs. Carrie Vinall.

Funeral services for Harold B. Hanson were held at 1:30 p.m., today (Thursday) at the Smith Funeral Home with Paul Seavey, Intern Seminarian at St. John's Lutheran Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Marvin Nottnagel. Pallbearers were Virgil Doud, Lloyd Gilbert, Edmund I. Green, Ray R. Hartzell, Clair Strand, and Roy Strasser. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.