OBITUARY.

1-2 Hiss Grace Harbison.

Grace Harbison was born Sept. 8. 1876, in Cheyenne, Wyoming, and lived with her parents near Grinnell for a number of years. Her mother died Nov. 10, 1905, and her father, an old soldier, died Sept. 15, the following year. After this she lived with her sister, Mrs. William Selle in Washington township.

When fifteen years old she contracted an illness which left her an invalid for the rest of her life, being entirely helpless the last few years. She have her sufferings, which at times were very severe, with Christian fortionic and patience, never marmuring but ever hopeful. She desired to five to enjoy the companionship of those she loved, who so tenderly ministered to her, yet her trust was in Christ, and she was ready for the call which came on Jan. 20, 1909, when aged 32 years, 4 months and 12 days.

To morn the loss of a loving sister are left two brothers and four sisters. John Harbison of Geneva, Ia., Hebron of Laport, Colorado, Mrs. Francis Mayo of Chester, Mrs. Fanny Beale of Canada, and Mrs. Nellie White and Mrs. Mattie Selle of Washington township. Funeral services were held at the Westfield church, conducted by Rev. Robert Lincoln, and the body was tenderly laid to rest beside her parents in Westfield cemetery.
