

John Harbison 7-21-1913 Rites Tuesday

John Harbison, son of Jane and George Harbison, was born February 24, 1869, in Geneseo, Ill., and passed away at Iowa City hospital Saturday evening, July 15, at 7:10, at the age of 64 years, four months and 21 days.

He came to Iowa with his parents at the age of 11 years, soon after his mother passed away, and started working out. He continued to work out until he was united in marriage to Anna Newberry, January 28, 1907. They started their first home near Hampton, Iowa, on a farm.

To this union three children were born, Nellie Mae, who passed away in 1918, at the age of 10 years, Mrs. Lila Williamson of Montezuma, and George, at home.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife, Anna Harbison, two children, two grandchildren, and four sisters. Mrs. William Selle and Mrs. George Mayo of Grinnell, Mrs. Guy Beal of Tama, Mrs. Lew White of New Sharon, and one brother, Hebrun Harbison of Fort Collins, Colo., who is unable to be present. Many neighbors and friends also share with the family their great loss.

Mr. Harbison was a loving father and a faithful husband, always of a cheerful, happy disposition, never despondent, and even in his last sickness, always ready with a smile, going away cheerfully to the hospital, seemingly his only care being for his family and home. As a neighbor he was always ready with his services no matter how hard the work.

He had been in poor health for the last three years, but continued working until last month. Since then he has been confined to his home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Westfield church, with Rev. Robert Lincoln in charge. Three numbers were sung by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Howell and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Lord. Interment was in the Westfield cemetery.
