

3C

January 31, 1996

Pauline Delores
"Pat" Harden

(JACKIE)

Pat was born on Dec. 14, 1934, at Iowa City, to James and Dolly Miles Main. She attended the Johnston schools.

On September 23, 1952, she was married to Jackie Harden at Des Moines. The couple lived in Ladora, where she operated the Ladora Cafe. She also worked for the Amana Woolen Mill and she was a cook at the Homestead Kitchen.

She is survived by her mother, Dolly Main of Irvine, Calif., two daughter, Patricia Jackson of Batesville, Ark., and Mary Pidima of Ladora; two sons, Jack Harden of Ladora and Milan Harden of Victor; eight grandchildren; one brother, Charles Main of Farnhamville; five sisters, Betty Blodgett of Queen City, Mo., Virginia Nichols of Rowlett, Texas, Donna Schwab of Irvine, Calif., Joyce Woodley of Osceola and Judy Berneking of Mission Viego, Calif.

Pat died Jan. 27, at her home in Ladora. She was 61 years of age, and she was preceded in death by her husband; her father; and one granddaughter, Amber Marie.

Funeral was at Smith Funeral Home, Victor, with Rev. Torger Johnson, pastor of United Methodist Church, Ladora, officiating.

Music was provided by organist Mrs. Marna Mohr who played, "How Great Thou Art", "Amazing Grace", and "Old Rugged Cross".

Interment was at Ohio Cemetery, Ladora.