

The Grinnell Herald

W. G. RAY

G. W. COWDEN

RAY & COWDEN, Editors & Proprietors
OFFICIAL PAPER

Grinnell, Iowa, Friday, Sept. 22, 1905.

ARTHUR J. HARRIS, M. D.

The funeral of Arthur J. Harris, M. D., was held at the home Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock. The services were conducted by Rev. E. M. Vittum. The music was by a quartet consisting of Dr. Somers, Dr. Parish, E. B. Brande and W. C. Staat. The bearers were E. B. Brande, W. T. Moyle, O. F. Parish, S. J. Pooley, P. E. Somers and M. W. Swisher.

Arthur J. Harris was born in Grinnell in 1864 and was 41 years old at the time of his death. He graduated from the Medical school in 1887, after which he spent about a year in a pharmacist's store in Topeka.

58

In 1888 he returned to Grinnell and entered upon the practice of his profession, at once securing a large and lucrative practice and proving himself not only skillful as a physician and surgeon but wonderfully successful in practice.

In 1888 he married Miss Minnie Devendorf, of Topeka, who with three daughters survive him and mourn the death of a loving husband and father.

Dr. E. H. Harris, who has been in Denver visiting a few weeks arrived on the morning train from the west Wednesday in time to be present at the funeral.

Mr. H. X. Devendorf, of Topeka, Mr. W. J. Harris, of Lewis and Mrs. M. H. Kilbourne, of Ames, were present at the funeral.