

Services Held Friday For $\frac{8}{23}$ J. M. Harris $\frac{72}{72}$

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon for Jones Marshall Harris of Lynnville. Harris, 68, was killed Wednesday afternoon as he drove a small tractor down a Jasper County road.

The son of Edward and Sudde Garr Harris, he was born Mar. 9, 1904 in Missouri, and married on July 26, 1928 to Anna Jane Houston of Platte City, Mo. The couple had two daughters, Mrs. Arnold (Ruth) Terpstra of Lynnville, and Mrs. Donald (Linda) Westercamp of Winfield, Ia.

Mr. Harris is survived by his daughters, six grandchildren, his wife, two brothers, El Harris of Houston, Tex., and Mitt Harris of Leavenworth, Kan., and a sister, Mrs. Frank (Elizabeth) Adams of Amondale, Mo. He was preceded in death by his parents, three brothers, and two sisters.

A memorial has been established for the former Maytag employee, who was buried in Lynnville's Woodland Cemetery after services in the Lynnville Friends Church. Services were held by the Rev. Delano Cunningham.
