

^{H-F. Nov. 29,}
Shirley Hartgrave 1978

Shirley Hartgrave, 68, formerly of Victor and Belle Plaine, died Tuesday, Nov.
27, at a rural farm home near Victor.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday at the McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in Victor, with the Rev. James F. Schutter, pastor of the Victor United Methodist Church, officiating. Burial will be in Oak Hill Cemetery, Belle Plaine.

Mrs. Hartgrave was a former cook at the Victorian Inn and several area restaurants.

She is survived by four sons, Raymond of Chelsea, Jerold of Keystone, James of Portland, Ore., and Neil of Belle Plaine; five daughters, Rosemary Yilek of Belle Plaine, Marietta Meyer of Parnell, Nancy Palmer of Newton, Glenna Vandivier of Albuquerque, N.M., and Karen Jimenez of Oskaloosa; 23 grandchildren; three great-grandchildren and three brothers.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Clyde, and one brother.

Clyde