Mrs. Harthoorn rites held

Henrietta Harthoorn, 61, of Sully died Tuesday at Grinnell General Hospital. Jan 20

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p.m. Friday at the First Reformed Church in Sully, with the Rev. Daniel Hakken officiating. She was buried at the Saum Cemetery north of Kilduff.

Mrs. Harthoorn was a member of the First Reformed Church of Sully, had been active in a number of its organizations, and had been a church classical officer. She had served as a nurse's aide at Grinnell General Hospital for five years.

Survivors include her husband; three sons, Bryce of Hudson, Donovan of Des Moines and Kurt of Sully; five grandchildren; a brother, Melvin Van DerPol of Oskaloosa; four sisters, Geneva Ratcliff of Grinnell, Wilda Nikkel of Newton and Iva Baarda and Donna Brand, both of Sully; and her father, Everett C. VanDerPol of Sully.

The family suggests memorial contributions be given to the HCJB Radio Station for Christian Ministry in Quito, Ecuador, South America. Memorials may be left at Van Dyk-Duvan Funeral Home in Pella.
