Edna Hartman services today

July 20
Edna D. Hartman, 80, died early Friday at Hackley Hospital in Muskegon, Mich.

Graveside services for Mrs. Hartman will be held at noon today at Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ—Congregational, officiating. Funeral services were held Saturday morning at Muskego. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The daughter of Christian and Anna Stauffer Neuen-schwander, she was born Oct. 15, 1898, at Berne, Ind. She attended Goshen College in Goshen, Ind., and received her nursing degree from Mt. Sinai School of Nursing in Cleveland, Ohio.

She was married to the Rev. Ross Bernard Hartman on Sept. 14, 1926, at Chardon, Ohio. The couple had two daughters. The Rev. and Mrs. Martman served wight pastorates with the United Church of Christ—Congregational, including those at Hillsboro, Wis.; Chardon, Ohio; Steubenville, Ohio; Mondovi, Wis.; Wahpeton, N.D.; Osage and Rock Rapids, Iowa; and for 10 years at Dickinson, N.D. They moved to the Mayflower Home in January 1966. Following her husband's death on April 22, 1968, Mrs. Hartman moved to Muskegon to be near her daughter.

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. John (Edna Louise) Contrady of Muskegon; three grand-children; two great-grandchildren; and a sister, Mrs. Selma Habegger of Berne, Ind. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband, and an infant daughter.
