

Bert Hasley Rites Held

SEARSBORO (Special)— Bert Frederick Hasley, 64, of Searsboro died Dec. 9. 7

The son of Charles and Margaret Hartman Hasley, he was born May 12, 1908, at Searsboro. He was married to Lois Elizabeth Newport Dec.
24, 1934, at Kohomo, Mo.

Mr. Hasley was a life-long farmer. He was an active member of the New Sharon Friends Church.

Funeral services were held at the Harden Funeral Chapel in New Sharon at 2 p.m. Dec.
12, with Claude Thayer, pastor, officiating. Pallbearers were Helenwood Stanley, Wilbur
Stanley, Leslie Patterson, Phillip Patterson, Clyde Lockard and Dale Schwechel.
Mary Louise Schwechel, Frances Thayer, Letha Patterson and Ruth Briggs were in charge of flowers. Miriam Schultz sang "Amazing Grace" and "In the Garden."
Accompanied by Harriet Macy on the organ.

Surviving are a son David Hasley of Eureka, Mo.; a daughter, Diana Clare, of Almer; his wife Lois; four brothers, Floyd of Searsboro, Ole and Howard of Monrovia, and Lewis of Monrovia; and three sisters, Elvia Wymore of California, Edna Dawley of Searsboro, and June Williams of New Sharon. Also surviving are three granddaughters. A brother, John, preceded him in death.