

Funeral for Charles Hasley Held On June 20 at Searsboro Friends Church

Charles Francis Hasley, 80, son of James B. and Ethelinda Wymore Hasley, was born June 5, 1880, at Salina, Kans. At an early age he moved with his parents to Washington township, and spent most of his adult life farming in Sugar Creek township. He died June 16 at the home of a daughter, Mrs. Edna Dawley, in Searsboro, in his sleep. He was a 50-year member of the Searsboro IOOF.

He was married to Margaret Hartman Aug. 22, 1901, and to this union there were 11 children. The nine surviving are John Hasley, Rexburg, Idaho; Sylvia Wymore, Westminster, Calif.; Howard Hasley, Brooklyn; June Williams, New Sharon, and Mrs. Dawley, Floyd, Bert, Lewis and Joe Hasley, all of Searsboro. Also surviving are two half-sisters, Mrs. Oliver Cook, Montezuma, and Mrs. Tom McGinn, Searsboro, 28 grandchildren, 9 great grandchildren, and many nieces and nephews.

Rev. Shantu Parmar

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. June 20 at the Community Friends church in Searsboro with the Rev. Myrtle C. Lee in charge. Musical selections were by Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Steen, accompanied by Mrs. Leo Watson. Flower attendants were Mesdames George Johnson, Richard Davis, Glenn Stewart and Kinzie Wimer.

Interment was in Blue Point cemetery beside his wife who died in 1945. Casket bearers were George Johnson, John Rupp, Jake Hasley, Leo Evans, Carl Boget and Ernest Brignon.

Monday, June 27, 1960

OBITUARY

CHARLES F. HASLEY
(Contributed)

Charles Francis Hasley, son of James B. and Ethelinda Wymore Hasley was born June 5, 1880 at Salina, Kansas. At an early age, he with his parents moved to Washington Township, Poweshiek County, Iowa.

On August 22, 1901, he was married to Margaret Hartman. Eleven children were born to this union, nine are surviving. John of Rexburg, Idaho; Sylvia Wymore of Westminster, California, Howard of Brooklyn, Iowa, June Williams of New Sharon; also Edna Dawley, Floyd, Bert, Lewis, Joe Hasley all of Searsboro.

His entire life was spent as a farmer, living in Sugar Creek township. He was a 50 year member of the I.O.O.F. lodge. About two weeks ago, he was stricken with the flu which weakened his heart. On June 16, 1960, he passed away in his sleep at the home of Mrs. Edna Dawley at the age of 80 years and 11 days. Preceding him in death were his wife who passed away April 1, 1945, his parents, one brother and one sister dying in infancy, two sisters, namely Mrs. Rosa Van Gorp and Mrs. Laura Ferree. Among those surviving are two half-sisters, Mrs. Tom McGinn of Searsboro, and Mrs. Oliver Cook of Montezuma, 28 grandchildren and 9 great grandchildren and many nieces and nephews.

Services were held at the Community Friends church in Searsboro on June 20, 1960 at 2 p.m. with the Rev. Myrtle C. Lee in charge. Pallbearers were George Johnson, John Rupp, Jake Hasley, Leo Evans, Carl Boget and Ernest Brignon. Flower attendants: Mrs. George Johnson, Mrs. Richard Davis, Mrs. Glenn Stewart and Mrs. Kinzie Wimer. Musical selections, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Steen; accompanist, Mrs. Leo Watson; interment, Blue Point cemetery.