

Louis A. Hasselbrink

Louis Albert Hasselbrink, 85, of Newton, who until three years ago had lived his entire life in Kellogg, died Saturday, Oct. 3, at Skiff Medical Center in Newton of complications following several strokes.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at Holy Trinity Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Jerome Egel officiating. Burial was in Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg, with the Wallace-Pence Funeral Home of Newton in charge of arrangements.

He was the son of Christoph and Amelia Schultz Hasselbrink and was born Nov. 1, 1906, on a farm west of Laurel. He was a 1924 graduate of Kellogg High School. He was married to Edna Badger March 1, 1930, in Des Moines.

Mr. Hasselbrink was postmaster of Kellogg from 1936 to 1964. He was a member of St. Paul Lutheran Church in Kellogg and was one of the leading organizers of the Kellogg Cardinals semi-professional baseball team. He ran the team's concession stand for many years and was active in promoting other community projects.

He was chosen as Kellogg Outstanding Citizen in 1979. He had served as Kellogg Township clerk, deputy assessor for Kellogg Township, director of the Kellogg Housing Corporation and as a member of the national Association of Retired Federal Employees.

Surviving are his wife; one son, Roger of Cedar Rapids; one daughter, Joan Mason of Newton; four grandchildren; two great-grandchildren; and one sister, Elsie Reed of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by five brothers, two sisters and two half-brothers.

Memorials may be made to the Kellogg Historical Museum, Holy Trinity Lutheran Church or Progress Industries and may be sent in care of the Wallace-Pence Funeral Home.

H-R October 8, 1992