OBITUARY

ALFONS E. HAUTEKEETE JR.
(Contributed)

Alfons Ernest Hautekeete Jr. was born August 18th, 1940, in Mahaska county near Rose Hill and died January 18th, 1964, at Iowa City of injuries received earlier that day in a quarry accident near Malcom.

He was the son of Ernest and Mary Hautekeete, who made their home for several years in the Rose Hill and Brooklyn areas before moving to Malcom in 1952.

Alfons attended the rural public schools at Brooklyn and Malcom and graduated from Montezuma high school in 1959. After graduation, he served three and one-half years in the United States Marine Corps.

Following his discharge from service, he was employed by the Malcom Stone Company.

Shortly before Christmas, 1963, he became engaged to Miss Lou Thompson and they anticipated marriage in the near future.

He was a member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge.

Survivors include his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hautekeete of Malcom; one brother, Richard LeRoy Hautekeete of Grinnell; three sisters, Mrs. Warren (Anna Mae) Stone of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. John (Arleen Marie) Reimers of Brooklyn, and Mrs. Franklin (Verna Fay) Reimers of Malcom; his fiancée, Miss Lou Ann Thompson; two grandfathers, Ben Jackson Sr. of Los Angeles, Calif., and Leon Hautekeete of Malcom; one niece, and four nephews and other relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by two grandmothers.

Alfons Hautekeete Of Malcom Victim Of Quarry Accident

Alfons Hautekeete, jr., 23, son of Mr. and Mrs. A.E. Hautekeete, sr. of Malcom, was fatally injured Saturday when he was crushed by falling rock in a quarry located northwest of Malcom.

Hautekeete was freed by fellow workers at the quarry and was taken to an Iowa City hospital where he died several hours after the accident. He had been employed by the Malcom Stone Co. for over a year.

Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock at the Malcom Methodist church in charge of the Rev. James T. Robinson. Organist was Mrs. Nellie Farley and soloist was Mrs. Keith Stahl.

Burial was in Ivy Hill cemetery with Floyd Merical, Steven Reams, Larry Sheets, Gerald Baltisberger, Leo Tarvin and Edward Henry serving as pallbearers. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Sheets and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Tarvin.

In addition to his parents he leaves three sisters, Mrs. Warren (Anna) Stone of Colorado Springs, Colo., Mrs. John (Arlene) Reimers of Brooklyn and Mrs. Franklin (Fern) Reimers of Malcom; a brother, Richard Hautekeete of Grinnell, and two grandfathers, Leon Hautekeete of Malcom and Ben Jackson of Los Angeles, Calif.

The young man had planned to be married next month. His fiancée was Luann Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Thompson of Malcom.
