BROOKLYN WOMAN'S RITES ON TUESDAY

BROOKLYN-Sorrowing relatives and friends filled Grace Methodist church at Brooklyn Tuesday afternoon, July 28, to pay final respects to Mrs. Herman H. Heinen, 70. Had she been privileged to live a few more days to Aug. 3, they would have celebrated their 39th wedding anniversary.

Rev. M. C. Shupe, had charge of the service, and Mrs. Coe Manatt was at the organ. Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery. The casket bearers were Merrill Heinen and Elmer Norden, Guernsey; Ted Schrader, Cheyenne, Wyo., Alva Neitzel, Bert Ranfeld and Cecil Schrader of Brooklyn. Mmes. Paul Paulson, Margaret Johnston, August Lacaeyse and William Yost were in charge of the flowers.

Rosa Catherine Heinen, daughter of Albert L. and Cecelia A. Schrader, was born near Guernsey, Nov. 2, 1888, and died July 26 at Mercy hospital in Iowa City. Previously she had been in the Community hospital in Grinnell for approximately two weeks.

Mrs. Heinen assisted in the home of her parents until she was married Aug. 3, 1920 to Herman F. Heinen at the Methodist parsonage in Guernsey. They lived in St. Louis, Mo., until 1947 when they moved to Brooklyn. She was a member of Grace Methodist church.

Besides her husband, she is survived by five sisters and two brothers; Mrs. Mary Neitzel, Chelsea; Miss Ida Heinen and Mrs. Pearl Rieck, Brooklyn; Mrs. Lydia Davis, Montezuma, and Herman Schrader, Victor, and Wesley Schrader, Phoenix, Ariz. Two sisters, Mrs. Minnie Ranfield and Mrs. Ethel Rieck preceded her in death.
