Heinle Services Set For Tuesday

George Heinle, 78, of 400 Park Street, Grinnell, passed away suddenly Saturday noon, Sept. 9, at his home.

The son of Fred and Bertha Weise Heinle, he was born January 16, 1889, in Malcom Township on a farm southeast of Grinnell. He received his education in the Malcom Township rural school Number 9 and Grinnell high school.

On Nov. 5, 1913, he was united in marriage to Aleatha Grimm at Marshalltown. Following their marriage they farmed in the Malcom, Pleasant, and Chester Townships until 1930 when they moved to Grinnell. He then worked as a carpenter. For 16 years he worked in Alaska under Civil Service, and he retired eight years ago.

He is survived by his wife Aleatha, his sons Fred, Harold and Paul of Grinnell, Keith of Port Angeles, Wash., Kenneth of Oskaloosa, his daughter Betty (Mrs. Robert Dale) of Grinnell, his sister Aline (Mrs. Charles Irvin) of Grinnell, 13 grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a daughter Myrna in 1963, and a sister Mrs. Walter Hink.

Funeral services for George Heinle will be Tuesday at 2 p.m. at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home. The Rev. Wayne Shireman will officiate, and interment will be in Hazelwood Cemetery. Vocalist will be Mrs. Noel Taylor, and the organist Mrs. Kathleen Heffner.

Pallbearers are Delmar Luttman, Lester Luttman, Burrson Farmer, Delmar Puls, Esper Tiedeman and James Talbott.
