Miriam Heinle services held

Miriam G. Heinle, 44, of 202 Wilson St., Laurel, died at her home Friday, Jan. 30, of what the Iowa Division of Criminal Investigation described as stab wounds which apparently were self-inflicted.

Her body was discovered by her son in the garage at the home.

Funeral services were conducted at 1:30 p.m. Monday at the Grinnell Christian Church, with the Rev. Terri Elder, pastor of the Laurel United Methodist Church, officiating. Music was provided by Kathleen Heffner, organist, and Greater Love, a vocal and instrumental group.

Pallbearers were Tom Amundson, Dave Dale, John Dale, Ben Schroyer, Jim Sharp and Jerry Turner. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Edward and Marguerite Lauer Breuer, she was born on Aug. 14, 1942, at St. Louis, Mo. She was educated in the St. Louis school system and graduated from the University of Missouri at Columbia. Following her education she taught in Des Moines, Tama and SEMCO schools.

She was married to Eugene Heinle on Feb. 18, 1967, in St. Louis. The couple lived in Des Moines and Marshalltown before coming to Laurel in 1970. Mrs. Heinle was a member of the Laurel United Methodist Church.

She is survived by her husband; three sons, Steven, Stuart and Craig; her mother, Marguerite Breuer of St. Louis; and three brothers, Bruce Breuer of Springfield, Mass., Brian Breuer of St. Louis and Brandon Breuer of San Francisco, Calif. She was preceded in death by her father.
