

Grant M. Heishman Services Conducted

Funeral services were held Sunday, Dec. 13, at the Malcom Methodist Church, with the Rev. James Davidson officiating, for Grant M. Heishman of Malcom, who died Dec. 10 at Mercy Hospital in Iowa City following an illness of one year.

Pallbearers were John Meyer, John Dalton, Donald Schultz, Dale Heishman, Dean Heishman and Norman Reedy. Flower attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Norman Schroeder and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Cummings.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

Grant M. Heishman was born Oct. 23, 1899 near Grinnell, the son of John L. and Ann Miller Heishman.

On Oct. 30, 1940, Mr. Heishman married Geneva Meyer, who survives.

Mr. Heishman was a 50-year member of the Elks, an American Legion member and served on the Malcom town council with the fire department, as a school board member, and on the Poweshiek County Board of Education for 11 years.

After serving two years in the Navy during World War II, Mr. Heishman returned to farming until his retirement five years ago.

Survivors include his wife Geneva; a brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Truman Heishman of Grinnell; a brother-in-law and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clair Meyer of Brooklyn; and several nieces, nephews, grandnieces and grand-nephews.

Funeral Services Held For Grant Heishman

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at the Malcom Methodist Church for Grant M. Heishman, Malcom resident, who died in an Iowa City hospital following a long illness.

The Rev. James Davidson officiated at the services. Burial was in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom.

The son of John L. and Anna Miller, Mr. Heishman was born Oct. 23, 1899 in Poweshiek County. He farmed in the Malcom area until moving to Malcom a few years ago.

Mr. Heishman was a former Malcom councilman and school board member.

Survivors include his wife, Geneva, and one brother, Truman.