Marjorie Emma Henle, daughter of John and Mary Roth Kriegel, was born Oct. 24, 1922, in Poweshiek County. She grew up on a farm in Poweshiek County, where she received her education in a rural school, Madison Township #3.

On Nov. 12, 1941, Marjorie was married to George Francis Henle at St. Patrick's Church, Brooklyn. They farmed north of Brooklyn until 1971, when they moved into town. Both worked at Nissen Mfg. Co. in Brooklyn until they reached retirement age. At that time she spent her time enjoying her family and crocheting for them, and making things for her grandchildren. One of her pastimes was walking.

Mrs. Henle was a member of St. Patrick's Church and the Catholic Order of Foresters.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, on Sept. 26, 1999; one sister, Stella Henle; seven brothers, Lyle Kriegel, Elmer Kriegel, Lloyd Kriegel, Wayne Kriegel, Lewis Kriegel, Melvin Kriegel and William Kriegel.

Surviving are two daughters, Judy Calderwood and her husband, Charles, and Diane Davidson, all of Brooklyn; four sons and their wives, Michael and Joann of Toledo, David and Carol of Creston, Duane and Bev of Cedar Falls, and Dale and Chung of Baltimore, Md.; two sisters, Gladys Healey of Toledo, and Mary Jane Rich of Nashville, Tenn.; six brothers, James Kriegel of Malcom, Gerald Kriegel, and Lawrence Kriegel of Brooklyn, Richard Kriegel of Marengo, Glen Joseph Kriegel and Kenneth Kriegel of Brooklyn; 16 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

A memorial fund has been established.
