

H-R Sept 6, 1974

Henning rites held Sept. 5

Edward Herman Henning, of Rock Island, Ill., a Jasper County resident until he moved from Newton in 1937, died Friday afternoon, Aug. 31, at his home.

Funeral services for Edward Henning were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday at the Wallace Funeral Home in Newton, with the Rev. A.B. Sudbrock, pastor of the Newton Baptist Temple, officiating.

Burial was in the Newton Union Cemetery.

The son of August Frederick and Fredericka Saak Henning, he was born Dec. 20, 1901, in Baxter. He married Leona Porter in 1924 in Newton.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; two sons in infancy; two brothers, August and Fred; and a sister, Lena.

Surviving him are two sons, Leo and Clifford, both of Rock Island, five grandchildren; four brothers, Walter, and Carl, both of Kellogg, Theodore of Colfax and Albert of Newton; and two sisters, Mrs. Will (Elsie) Hasselbrink of Grinnell and Mrs. Emma Reynolds of Rock Island, Ill.