

H-12
Monday, May 9, 1966

Roy W. Henning, Lifelong Kellogg Resident, Dies

Roy William Henning, 64, a lifelong resident of the Kellogg community, died Friday at a Marengo hospital.

Funeral services were conducted this afternoon (Monday) from the Johnson funeral home at Newton, with the Rev. Charles Fry, former Kellogg minister who now serves the Carlisle Christian church, officiating.

Interment was in Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

The son of Michael and Mary Wolfe Henning, he was born June 20th, 1901, at Kellogg and attended the Kellogg schools. On July, 1927, he was united in marriage with Samantha Davis at Centerville, who preceded him in death in 1945.

Survivors include two sons, John Henning and Robert Henning, both of Hartwick; a daughter, Mrs. Robert (Florence) Cooper of Kellogg; and eight grandchildren.

In addition to his wife, he was preceded in death by his parents and one brother.