(By a Staff Correspondent).

Searsboro, Ia., Jan. 31, Special:

Sarah Ann McGuin was born near Searsboro, Ia., May 26, 1866 and departed this life Jan. 29, 1929 aged 62 years, 8 months and 3 days. She was the oldest daughter of Mary and Patrick McGuin.

She grew to womanhood in this vicinity where her whole life, has been spent.

She was married to Frank Hesley April 17, 1888. To this union was born one son, Jacob, of Searsboro.

She was never happier than in the confines of her own home and doing for those she loved. She was of a quiet, retiring disposition and it was only those who knew her best who could attest to the fullness of her kindly disposition.

Besides her husband and son she leaves to mourn her loss two grandsons, Charles and Marion Hesley and 5 sisters and 7 brothers, as follows: Mary Burgeson, (a twin sister) of Liberal, Missouri; Rebecca Lunn of Searsboro; Catherine Clifford of Nesting, Kansas; Patrick of Searsboro; Henry of Kellogg; John of Chickasha, Okla.; Philip of Wichita, Kansas; Francis of Gates, Okla.; Maggie Meeks of Ft. Cobb, Okla.; Elizabeth Hartman of Searsboro; Mike of Kingfisher, Okla., and Tim of Searsboro. Two brothers Thomas and Peter died several years ago. She leaves many more relatives and friends who mourn with the family her passing.

Funeral services were conducted at the home Thursday at 1 P. M. by Rev. Glenwood Stanley and the Rebekah Lodge. Interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
