

Raymond Hillyer Dies in Arizona

Word has been received by Miss Edith Kendall of the death of her cousin, Raymond L. Hillyer, 84, of Mesa, Ariz., on June 7.

Mr. Hillyer had suffered a broken hip, followed by pneumonia.

He and his wife Matte had visited in Grinnell several times. Mrs. Hillyer, a graduate of Drake University who preceded her husband in death, had been a teacher for many years in the schools of North Bend, Wash., where Mr. Hillyer had been a forest ranger until his retirement.

The son of W.P. Hillyer, he was a graduate of Grinnell College and later became a Baptist minister. His mother was the daughter of W.A. Propst, former Grinnell merchant who, together with Thomas Holyoke, constructed the building on Fourth Ave. here known as the Eagle building.

Mr. Hillyer's paternal grandfather founded the Grinnell Herald.
