

THE MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN . . . MARCH 9, 1967

Carl Hinegardner Rites Held At Newton

Funeral services for Carl Adam Hinegardner, 66, were held Monday, Feb. 27, at the Johnson funeral home, Newton, with the Rev. Charles Fry, pastor of the First Christian Church of Carlisle, officiating.

Interment was in Ivy Cemetery, Malcom.

Casket bearers were Wallace Baker, Dwight Norton, Eldon Lunberg, Clarence Shearer, Elden Smith and Donald Ringgenberg. Music at the services was provided by Mrs. Charles Fry, soloist, accompanied by Mrs. R. L. Jackson, organist.

Mr. Hinegardner died of a heart attack at his home in Newton on Saturday, Feb. 25. He had been a retired Maytag Co. employee since 1960.

Survivors include his wife, Beulah; two children, Bill Hinegardner and Mrs. Jack (Pat) VanCleave, both of Montezuma; and two grandchildren, Bill and Tom VanCleave.