(William)

Rites Today For Mrs. Gertie Hobbs, Kellogg Resident

Funeral services were scheduled to be held at Kellogg this afternoon (Monday) for Mrs. William (Gertie) Hobbs, 57, who died at her home there early Friday morning.

Burial was to be in Our Silent City cemetery at Kellogg.

A former resident of Grinnell and Gilman, Mrs. Hobbs had lived in Kellogg since 1946.

The daughter of William and Ida McGee, she was born at Unionville, Mo., on Dec. 6th, 1903. She was married to William Hobbs on Sept. 5th, 1921, at Unionville, and they moved to this area in 1922.

Survivors include eight sons: Harold of Grinnell, Robert of Montezuma, Albert of Ft. Madison, Roy of Newton, and William, Kenneth, Garold, and David, all of Kellogg.

Also surviving are a brother, John McGee of Grinnell, and a sister, Mrs. Mary Brown of Leavenworth, Wash.

Mrs. Hobbs was preceded in death by her husband, two brothers, and her parents.
