Funeral Services Held Today For Mabel Hockenbury

Funeral services for Mrs. Donald (Mabel) Hockenbury, 69, of 431 East Street, Grinnell, were held this afternoon (Thursday) from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Ralph Beebe of the Mayflower Home officiating.

Mrs. Hockenbury died Monday morning at an Iowa City hospital where she had been a patient about two weeks.

Organ music at the services was provided by Norman Goodbrod. Pallbearers were Lester Holcomb, Boyd Locker, Addison Jones, Lawrence Iverson, Peter Staffanou and John Hotchkin.

Interment was in Hazelwood cemetery.

She was born Jan. 7th, 1897, at Milwaukee, Wisc., the daughter of Luther and Rebecca Dyer. She received her education in the schools of Bruce, Wisc., and later moved to Chicago, Ill. There she had positions with the auditing department of the Hartford Insurance Co.; as private secretary to the Casino Club; and also was assistant manager of the DeWitt Hotel.

On Jan. 5th, 1943, she was united in marriage with Donald R. Hockenbury in Chicago. They made their home in Chicago until 1963 when they moved to Grinnell to make their home at the Hockenbury family home at 431 East Street.

She was a member of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, of Grinnell.

Survivors include her husband, Donald; two brothers, Robert and Delbert Dyer, both of Milwaukee, Wisc.; one sister, Mrs. Harry Baker of St. Paul, Minn.; and a brother-in-law Kenneth Hockenbury of Sioux City. Also surviving are several nieces and nephews.

Mrs. Hockenbury was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, Jack; and a sister, Mrs. Laura Vaughn.
