

WALTER H. HOCKEY

Walter H. Hockey, 82 of Montezuma, died Feb. 15 at Marengo Hospital.

He was born April 22, 1910 north of Montezuma, the son of James and Suzanna (Good) Hockey. He was graduated from Montezuma High School in 1930.

On April 15, 1933 he was united in marriage with Chloe Freeborn at Davenport. To this union two children were born. They lived their married life in Montezuma, where Walter owned and operated the Phillips 66 Station and bulk delivery for 39 years. At one time he operated a Phillips 66 Station in Brooklyn.

He was a member of the Montezuma United Methodist Church, was a Mason and member of Lafayette Lodge No. 52 A.F. & A.M., and had served on the Montezuma City Council for several years.

He was preceded in death by his parents; one brother Jake; one half brother Alva Good; and two sisters: Mabel Boren and Geneva Tish.

Walter is survived by his wife, Chloe, one son Gary Hockey of Venice, Calif.; one daughter and her husband, Lynne and Wayne Gould of Brighton; four grandchildren: Beth Ann and Sue Ellen Hockey, Sean and Kevin Gould; one sister Esther Mordock of Newton; and one brother Kenneth Hockey of Grinnell; other relatives and many friends.

Funeral service was Feb. 18 at Warrs Funeral Home, Montezuma. Officiating was the Rev. Kalen Fristad, Grace United Methodist Church, Brooklyn.

Casket bearers were Sean Gould, Kevin Gould, Wayne Gould, Francis Freeborn, Sheldon Freeborn and Max Montgomery. Interment was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.