

Ethel Holderness rites held

#4 R June 6, 1955
Ethel Holderness, 73, of Newton died Friday, May 24, at Skiff Memorial Hospital in Newton.

Funeral services were conducted May 28 at the Wallace-Pence Funeral Home, with burial in Newton Union Cemetery.

The daughter of Adam and Elizabeth Kriegel Haversperger, she was born Jan. 19, 1912, in Seymour, Ind. She was married to Charles H. Holderness on June 5, 1935, in Newton.

Mrs. Holderness was a member of the Pythian Sisters Newton Temple 77, Past Chiefs Association, Pocahontas Sequoia, State Guard of the Forest, and the Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary.

She is survived by one son, Charles of Independence, Mo.; two grandchildren; one sister, Margaret Shank of Kellogg; and three brothers, Edward of Kellogg, Lloyd of Gilman and Sylvester of Newton.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Charles; two brothers, Floyd of Kellogg and Henry of Grinnell; and one sister, Anna Brown of Kellogg.